

Rhythms

Use a medium-tipped marker or a soft pastel to retrace the gray lines and then continue to the bottom of the line. Proceed slowly, try to do at least two or three consecutive repetitions without lifting the pen. Change color on each line.

Handwriting practice sheet with 18 rows of cursive rhythm exercises. Each row consists of a long line of connected cursive shapes and a shorter line of three shapes. The shapes are: 1) 'm' loops, 2) 'n' loops, 3) 'u' loops, 4) 'c' loops, 5) 'o' loops, and 6) 'e' loops. Each row has a downward arrow on the left. The first row of 'm' loops includes a downward arrow on the left. The first row of 'n' loops includes a downward arrow on the left. The first row of 'u' loops includes a downward arrow on the left. The first row of 'c' loops includes a leftward arrow above the first shape. The first row of 'o' loops includes a leftward arrow above the first shape. The first row of 'e' loops includes a leftward arrow above the first shape.